NORTH KOREAN CABINET DECISION NO 95 ---

The Democratic People's Republic of Korea now has established relations with the Soviet Union and other democratic nations. This means that there will be, hereafter, steady traffic of passengers and goods across the borders; therefore, regulations for the proper control of traffic are necessary. Among other things, we must question all political personages and inspect all goods affecting the health of the people (including livestock). Therefore, the Cabinet of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea has decided to establish the following border inspection stations: Hongui, Namyang, Hoeryang, tablish the following border inspection stations. Border inspection stations at these points shall inspect all international traffic whether it be persons or commodities.

All preparations pertaining to border inspection shall be completed by 31 January 1949 and official inspection shall begin on 1 February 1949. (All traffic prior to 1 February 1949 shall be controlled according to existing regulations.)
